

Jack Pine

The prefers full sun and is shade-intolerant. It does best with moist soil.

It is a fast growing tree with a mature height of 55 to 65 feet.

The Jack Pine is used for cover and nesting for morning doves and as a food source for a variety of birds, squirrels and porcupines.