

Tamarack

The Tamarack prefers full sun and does best in wetlands or moist soil.

It is a fast-growing tree with a mature height of 40 to 70 feet.

The Tamarack is the only conifer that loses its needles in late fall. They make a great refuge for birds and small animals.