

Red Splendor Crabapple

The red splendor crabapple tree prefers full sun and does best on well-drained, moist soils.

It has a moderate growth rate and reaches a mature height of 10 to 25 feet.

Crabapples provide fair cover and high quality fruit and browse for many birds and a wide variety of animals. The apples make great cider, jelly and sauce.