

Common Lilac

The Common Lilac prefers full sun and does best in moist, well-drained soil. It has a moderate growth rate and reaches a mature height of 8 to 12 feet. Lilacs are most noted for their showy, fragrant flowers. There is little value for food or browse, but may be of value for nesting.