

White Cedar

Photos by Steve Nix and Jeffery Brokaw

The White Cedar prefers full sun to partial shade and does best in moist soil.

It has a slow growth rate and a mature height of 25 to 40 feet.

Stands of white cedar are important for wildlife. They provide shelter and forage for wildlife and birds.