

White Pine

The White Pine prefers full sun and does best on well-drained moist soil.

It is a fast-growing tree with a mature height of 80 to 100 feet.

Songbirds eat the seeds and beaver, porcupine, white tailed deer and rabbits eat the seeds, bark and foliage. The white pine is a favorite for the bald eagle's nest.