

Honeyrose Honeysuckle

The Honeyrose Honeysuckle can tolerate shade, partial sun and full sun. Plant in full sun for better blooming. It does best in moist, well-drained soil.

It is a fast-growing shrub that has a mature height of 8 to 10 feet.

The flowers are not fragrant, but attract butterflies and honeybees. They provide fruit for song birds and provide browse for deer.