

Paper Birch

The paper birch prefers full sun and does best on well-drained, moist soil.

It has a medium to fast growth rate reaching a mature height of 30 to 50 feet.

The bark contains vitamins and minerals, so deer, moose and porcupine like to graze on it. It also provides nesting sites and shelter for a wide variety of animals.