

Northern Red Oak

Northern Red Oak prefers full sun but can tolerate partial shade and does best in well-drained, moist soils.

It is a fast-growing tree with a mature height of 55 to 80 feet.

Acorns provide food for many birds and animals such as squirrels, grouse, blue jays, wild turkey, bear, deer and raccoons.